ARTICLE V

Purposes and Powers; Character of Affairs

Section 1. Purposes The purpose for which the Association is organized is the transaction of any and all lawful business for which non-profit corporations may be incorporated under the laws of the State of Arizona, as the same may be amended or succeeded from time to time, and for the purpose of performing or exercising all duties, obligations, responsibilities and rights imposed upon or granted to the Association under the Declaration, including, but not limited to, initially:

- A. Encouraging and facilitating social and recreational activities for the owners, lessees and residents of the real property subject to the Declaration (the "Property").
- B. Providing for the orderly development, maintenance, preservation and architectural control of the Property, as provided in the Declaration.
- C. Promoting the health, safety and welfare of the owners, lessees and residents within the Property and any additions thereto as may hereafter be brought within the jurisdiction of the Association.
- D. To comply with the requirements and provisions of the Declaration.

Section 2. Powers. In the conduct of its business, the Association, to the extent authorized by the Board (hereinafter defined) and the Declaration, but subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Declaration and any amendments thereto, shall be empowered to do all things that a private person or individual might do under the laws of the State of Arizona. Without limiting the foregoing in any manner, the Association shall possess the right to exercise any and all powers, rights and privileges which a corporation organized under the Arizona Revised Statutes Section 10-201 et seq. may by law now or hereafter exercise including, but not limited to, those powers set forth in Arizona Revised Statutes Section 10-3302 et seq.

ARTICLE VI

Memberships and Voting

The members of the Association (the "Members") and their voting rights shall be determined as provided in the Declaration.

ARTICLE VII

Tax Exempt Status

No part of the net earnings of the Association shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its Members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Association shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of its purposes. No substantial part of the activities of the Association shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Association shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Association shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501(C)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of United States (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Laws).

ARTICLE VIII

The initial Board shall serve until the first annual meeting following the termination of the Class B Membership.

ARTICLE X
Amendments

These Articles may initially be amended, altered or repealed by the affirmative vote of at least sixty-seventy percent (67%) of Members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote at any duly constituted and convened regular or special meeting of Members.

Anything in these Articles to the contrary notwithstanding, the declarant under the Declaration (the "Declarant") shall have the right to amend all or any part of these Articles to the extent required to correct clerical errors and to such an extent and with such language as may be requested or required by the Federal Housing Administration, Veterans Administration or any other agency with whom Declarant elects to do business as a condition precedent to such agency's approval of the Articles. Any such amendment shall be effected by Declarant recording an amendment duly executed and acknowledged by Declarant specifying the agency requesting the amendment and setting forth the requested or required amendment(s).

ARTICLE XI
Interpretation

If any part or provision of these Articles are in conflict or inconsistent with the Declaration, the terms and provisions of the Declaration will prevail and supersede such conflicting or inconsistent provisions hereof except as may otherwise be required by applicable law. If any part or provision of these Articles is in conflict or inconsistent with the Bylaws, the terms and provisions of these Articles will prevail and supersede such conflicting or inconsistent provisions thereof except as may otherwise be required by applicable law. Any provision contained in these Articles to the contrary notwithstanding, neither the Association, the Board nor any agent or employee of the Association will be authorized or empowered to take any action inconsistent with the provisions of the Declaration.

ARTICLE XII
Indemnification

The Association shall indemnify any person against expenses including, without limitation, attorney's fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred by reason of the fact that he or she was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the Association, or is or was serving as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise in all circumstances in which, and to the maximum extent that, such indemnification is permitted and provided for by the laws of the State of Arizona as then in effect. The private property of the incorporators, directors, officers, employees and agents of the Association shall be forever exempt from corporate debts and liabilities. No director of the Association shall be personally liable to the Association or its Members for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, or otherwise, to the maximum extent permitted by law.

ARTICLE XIII
Discrimination

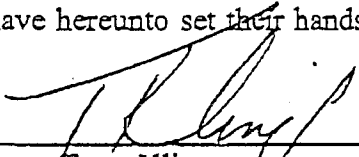

The Association will not practice or permit discrimination on the basis of sex, age, race, national origin, religion or physical handicap or disability.

ARTICLE XIV
Dissolution

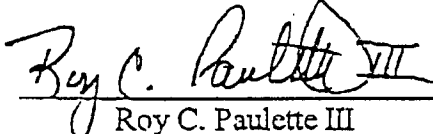

Upon the dissolution of the Association, the Board shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Association, and rebating to Members all excess assessments and fees, dispose of all its assets exclusively for the purposes of the Association in such a manner, or to such organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious or scientific purpose as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of the United States (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Laws) as the Board shall determine. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Superior Court of the county in which the principle office of the Association is then located, exclusively for such purpose or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purpose.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the incorporators have hereunto set their hands this 15th day of September, 2004.

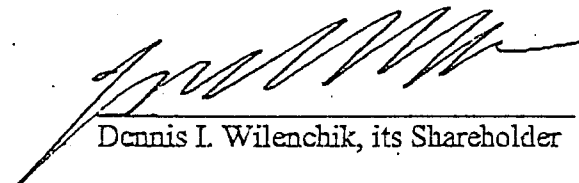

Terry Klinger

Roy C. Paulette III

The undersigned, designated herein as statutory agent, hereby consents to act as such until removal or resignation in accordance with the Arizona Revised Statutes.
